The Blue Duck Gallery April Newsletter

Table runners, napkins, place mats, cushions, throws, tablecloths, seat cushions – oh yeah, it's all going on at The Blue Duck Gallery this month!! It's a bit different but it's still very lovely and, now that spring seems to be springing it is ideal for both inside and outside living.

Table Linen and Circle Pottery by Linum & ECP Design

Our circles pottery is going down a storm and we now have gorgeous lilac and sea blue spotty pottery for those of us who need something a bit brighter and lighter for the breakfast table.

For a slightly different Easter present we've got some more beautiful silk marl scarves by Alison Dupernex in all sorts of colours which are ideal for us girls. The Noa jewellery is here and proving to be very popular both because of price but also, of course, because the ceramic tiles are so pretty and highly wearable. For guys we've got a great choice of cufflinks, paintings or prints and ceramics. Finally the kids - we're extending our range of Toby Tiger clothes and we're also getting in some really fab' children's & babywear from Albetta so if you're trying to keep the kids away from chocolate or perhaps they're still a bit young then we've got some lovely alternatives, not forgetting of course our range of toys from Moulin Roty.

The website (www.theblueduckgallery.co.uk) is still being continuously updated and because I can't put all our most recent prints and paintings into the newsletter it's a great way of keeping up -to-date with what is going on. We've got wonderful paintings both by Howard Birchmore and Paul Gunn as well as etchings by Jo Barry and Alison Read and prints by Kirsten Jones and Helen Rhodes and they're all on there for you to see if you click on Gallery and then books and much more. The spotty pottery range is now on the Ceramics page and there is even a new Newsletter page where you can download this very letter and peruse it at your leisure! Also if you're interested in clothes for the kids it is worth keeping an eye on the Kids & Babies page as all new clothes will be put on there as soon as they arrive.

As always – sorry to bang on about it – we would like to thank you for your amazing support. The gallery is going really well and it is all thanks to you guys for coming in regularly, telling all your friends about us, getting all your pictures framed – you know the ones that have been sitting at the bottom of the wardrobe for the last 3 years – and generally being amazing. The feedback we've been getting about the gallery, our new stock, the children's clothes and the framing service has been phenomenally encouraging.

Before I go I'd just like to remind you that framing is not just about pictures and photos. At the moment I am framing a selection of Formula 1 tickets but we've also framed running shirts & medals, rugby and football shirts, wedding headaddresses, buttonholes, a ticket to the Queen's garden party and we also stretch canvases and stretch and frame tapestries and needlework. Pop in and see us for a quote.

Ps You've all been very good at not pointing out that last month's newsletter still had February in the title – thank you!
